Dennis Warner is an Americana folk singer and songwriter who blends humor, audience participation, and serious music into a memorable and fun concert for adults and families. Dennis has toured extensively throughout North America during his twenty-plus year career, appearing numerous times on both television and radio. He has also been honored with an invitation to perform in concert at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.

Dennis' career blossomed a few years ago with the release of his song "Beads on One String" as a children's book. Already into its fourth printing, "Beads on One String" has become a favorite with teachers and parents alike for its powerful, positive message of unity and tolerance along with its beautiful illustrations.

Dennis Warner accompanies his smooth vocals with his own unique percussive style of playing the six and twelve string guitars. Warner's concerts are suitable for all ages.

Concert is open to the public for a suggested donation of $15.
